It's new! It's exciting! And, it's a great asset to your practice!

Sponsored by the Consumer Bankruptcy Association

The Consumer Bankruptcy Association and ICLE announce a premier, national level bankruptcy program right here in Michigan. No airport hassles or cost of travel. CBA and ICLE join to deliver top notch education tailored to your needs. Whether you represent consumers or creditors, are new to bankruptcy or an experienced practitioner, you'll stay current, avoid costly mistakes, and save time by attending.

Featuring 2 of the Best National Speakers on Bankruptcy Issues in the Country!

Honorable Keith M. Lundin of the United States Bankruptcy Court Middle District of Tennessee and Chapter 13 Trustee Henry E. Hildebrand, III present their patented and acclaimed caselaw update! Every Chapter 13 case decided in the last year summarized and analyzed to keep you current and at the top of your practice! Plus, in the View from the Bench session get tips, best practices, and advice from judges from the Eastern and Western Districts of Michigan.

Attend for These Great Benefits:

- Meet the movers and shakers of bankruptcy practice
- Admit evidence with confidence by watching experienced litigators demonstrate and explain the right way to lay a proper foundation for common exhibits and valuations
- Confirm your Chapter 13 cases without costly and time consuming court appearances
- Know proof of claim requirements inside and out
- Prepare documents that are right the first time
- Avoid the many perils and pitfalls when divorce and bankruptcy intersect
- Tailor the program to meet your needs—3 separate tracks from which to choose
- Receive a searchable CD of all seminar materials and a printed binder of national speaker materials
- And more!
